

FARMA

The Cress Company are pleased to announce that we have just become associate members of FARMA a co-operative association that works to support farming business that sell their produce direct to customers through Farm Shops, Pick Your Own, Farmer's Markets and Box Schemes.

This organisation helps many of our valued suppliers to continue to supply us with the range and quality of products we love here at The Cress Company.

For more information on how you can get involved in FARMA why not hop online to <http://www.farma.org.uk/>