

Out and About

With the turn of the New Year comes the start of the 2012 Trade Show season so we at the Cress Company thought it was only appropriate that we join in.

Starting on January 22nd at Glasgow's SECC we will be at Scotland's Speciality Food Show for three days joined on the stand by some of our fantastic suppliers; Luscombe Drinks, Dip Nation, Berry Scrumptious, Really Garlicky Company, MacLeans Highland Bakery and Stokes Sauces. We will also be serving up some delicious Union Coffee and nibbles for all our customers, why not pop along for a chat and a look at our brand new 2012 catalogue.

Closely following we'll be at the FARMA trade fair at the Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston, Edinburgh on Wednesday 1st February. The trade day takes place as part of the annual FARM and More Farm Diversification Event. FARMA are a co-operative association that support farming businesses in selling their produce to people like us. The event will be packed with great suppliers, information and seminars that could help your business too, for more information click on the link above.

It'll be yet another busy time for us but a great chance to show people what we've got for 2012.

Hope to see you all there!
