BILLINGTON'S GINGERBREAD

Rich, exotic and famed for its 'dunking delights', historically the farmers' wives and people of Market Drayton, Shropshire, enjoyed the celebrated gingerbread by dunking it into a glass of tea, coffee or Port on market day. This tradition, which is still enjoyed today, enriches the flavour of the gingerbread, bringing out the spicy notes for which the biscuit is celebrated.

Chris and Kris, two food-obsessed Cornish boys, were fed up of the lack of high quality ketchup on the market and decided to develop a real quality ketchup that complimented all of their favourite foods instead of completely overpowering them. Armed with a large stock pot, plenty of ideas (and a shed load of tomatoes) they set about creating their very own range of ketchups.

Summerdown mint

The taste of pure English mint revived for the 21st century

At the heart of Summerdown's award-winning chocolates and teas is our traditional Black Mitcham peppermint, which is grown, harvested and distilled on our farm in the foothills of the Hampshire Downs.

This distinctive single-estate peppermint oil is used in all our products and has a soft, smooth and lingering taste. Bright, fresh and aromatic, it is very different from the harsher, blended imported peppermint of the past 60 years.

Your customers will certainly taste the difference. Stock it now!

We are Scotland's only organic brewery making world class beers from our beautiful and wild Highland home. We use only the finest organic malted barley and hops - grown on our own farm and other organic farms, without the use of chemicals - as nature intended.

The fresh, pure water is drawn from our own private source deep below the brewery. We even feed the spent grain back to our flock of Hebridean sheep and farm cows - Jeanie and Linnet - who, in turn, provide us with the milk for our tea breaks!

We think we brew beer in breathtaking surroundings. If you find yourself in the Highlands, come and see the brewery and farm and share a beer with us.

The Durum Wheat "Senatore Cappelli" is an autumn variety selected in 1915 by the agronomist Nazareno Strampelli, this Italian grain, was dedicated to Marquis Raffaele Cappelli from Abruzzo, Senator of the Italian Kingdom and promoter of the Agrarian Reform. Defined the "most beautiful durum wheat that ever appeared", It has brownish-black awns and large glassy grains, an amber yellow translucent color; its high height (120/130 cm) makes it more competitive towards weeds with less need for weeding and for this reason suitable for the organic cultivation.

Rustichella pasta is made from wheat grown in the Abruzzo region, and water from the springs in the mountains that lie along the coastline. Simply delicious!

THE CORNISH KETCHUP COMPANY

Chris and Kris, two food-obsessed Cornish boys, were fed up of the lack of high quality ketchup on the market and decided to develop a real quality ketchup that complimented all of their favourite foods instead of completely overpowering them. Armed with a large stock pot, plenty of ideas (and a shed load of tomatoes) they set about creating their very own range of ketchups.
