Highland Fine Cheeses
Artisan Cheeses From The Highlands Of Scotland

Created by the Stone family in the early 1950's, Highland Fine Cheeses started life as a micro dairy, making old traditional Scottish cheeses, such as Crowdie and Caboc, from their own cow's milk.

Fast forward to 2019 and everything is still made by hand by our small team here in the Highlands. Now the company is more focused on mould ripened cheeses with brie, blue and washed rind styles. The milk comes from three local farms, Sibster just west of Wick, Thrumster with a herd of organic Jersey cows and Rootfield on the Black Isle which is converting to Ayrshire cows.

Our product range includes the traditional Crowdie, Black Crowdie, Caboc, Morangie and Highland Brie, Strathdon Blue, Blue Murder, Fat Cow and Minger.

At Cropwell Bishop Creamery we handcraft our Stilton and blue cheese the traditional way, using recipes passed down by three generations of the Skales family.

Our award winning Stilton is made with milk from our dedicated small family farms in the Derbyshire Peak District, helping to make our Stilton the tastiest around.

Cropwell Bishop Creamery is proud to supply Blue Stilton to The Cress Co.
